My dear Phelps

24

A very pleasant servant, in the family, with whom I am residing, named Anne Williamson, is anxious about an Uncle of hers, named, John Greaves, who she describes, as probably being at the East Cambridge, Glass works, near Boston. Now, I want you, to cause whatever enquiry you conveniently can, to be made about him there; and if you obtain any clear and satisfactory information, to communicate the same, by letter, to Anne Williamson, care of Mrs W. S. Blair, Bathwick hill - Bath, England -

I hope to see you at the Anniversary, in May, in New York, as I purpose leaving Liverpool, D. C. for that city, on 10th of April - Give my cordial love, & all the Lane Abolitionists of your neighbourhood, and believe me ever Affectionately Yours

C. Stuart
